

CHURCH COUNCIL FAVORS STRONG LABOR PLATFORM

Convention Wants Conference of Labor Leaders Under Christian Auspices.

NEW STATUS FOR LABOR

Favors Free Community Speech Forums and Co-Operative Movement of Labor as Preparation for Industrial Democracy.

(The Associated Press.) CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 3.—A labor platform was favored by the church and community convention of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, which closed here today. The platform was included in the social service report, and calls for recognition by the united churches of the labor movement.

Fraternities of labor leaders and employers under Christian auspices. Community free-speech forums. The co-operative movement of labor as preparation for industrial democracy.

Experiments in sharing in and control of industries by labor. There are interests in this country that would give millions of dollars to suppress this report. Chairman Frank B. Smith declared.

The labor clauses turned the morning meeting into a general discussion of socialism and radical issues. While culminating in no action, because the convention had no legislative power, the discussion revealed a remarkable unanimity of opinion that the churches recognize the fact that labor is demanding and worthy of a new status in civilization.

Colonel Raymond Robins and Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick, of New York, addressed the closing session. The Attorney-General down, are doing more for Bolshevism than any man in the country," Robins said.

Rev. Harry Emerson Fosdick declared that the "administration is displaying amazing ingenuity in discovering more limits to which idleness can go."

Will Take Offing June 18. Members and friends of the Sunday schools of Monumental, Ascension, St. Mark's, St. Thomas and Good Shepherd Episcopal Churches will go on their annual excursion to Buckroe beach on June 18. They will travel over the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, leaving Main Street Station at 8:15 o'clock in the morning, and returning that night at 7. Tickets may be bought from members of the schools.

It was decided to hold another meeting June 12.

Four committees were appointed last night, as follows: Streets, J. R. Carson, chairman; S. P. Bass and R. L. Gray, members; R. M. Smith, chairman; W. J. Morrisett and W. J. Fisher, members; John H. Mass-Meeting of Retail Clerks. Plans for a big mass-meeting of all clerks, male and female, were discussed last night at a meeting of the Retail Clerks of Richmond, in the Arcade Building. W. C. Crozier, the president, presided. June 17 was set for the mass-meeting. The place of meeting was not selected. The meeting promises to be one of the largest of its kind in Richmond, and many prominent speakers are expected to attend.

Find Infant in Basket. Reposing snugly in a small wicker basket, a small baby girl, twelve hours old, was found at the Ashland station, of the Richmond-Ashland car line yesterday morning. The infant is supposed to have been taken from Richmond in an automobile.

WITH BUT TWO DAYS TO GO, V. M. I. FUND SHORT $75,000

Will Be Used Largely in Placing Memorials to Heroic Dead by Institution Who Died in World War.

With only two more days left in which to complete their drive, the Richmond alumni of the Virginia Military Institute found themselves upwards of $75,000 short of their goal when reports were compiled last night on yesterday's subscriptions to Richmond's share of the proposed $1,000,000 fund.

Although working under this handicap, old cadets of the institute are still sanguine that they will complete the fund in Richmond. Many corporations will subscribe as soon as the local drive will close tomorrow night.

MANY EXPECTED TO ATTEND CITY'S VACATION SCHOOLS

John Marshall, William Fox, Madison, Springfield, Robert Fulton and Powhatan Hold Summer Sessions.

Vacation schools open June 11 in John Marshall, William Fox, Madison, Springfield, Robert Fulton and Powhatan, of the white schools, and Baker, George Mason and Dunbar, of the colored schools. For the first time, there will be no vacation school conducted for colored high school pupils, because no teachers are available this year.

Three types of students are advised by school officials to attend vacation schools. First, those who fail of promotion, but who, in the opinion of the teacher, can make up the failure by attending vacation school; second, those who, on account of superior work and ability, are capable of doing new work (a grade or new subjects) in nine weeks; third, those who should take the work of an old or 2 new grade in order to be strengthened. No pupil who has failed can be prohibited from attending vacation schools.

All high school and junior high school pupils go to the John Marshall vacation school. Children below grade 6A do not go to vacation schools, it is stated.

The daily session is from 8:30 until noon, and the school is in session three weeks. Investigation has shown that the health of normal children is not injured by the forenoon session in the schoolroom with even afternoon and one whole month for play before the regular session opens again in September.

Last year, a total of 2,463 children of the Richmond city schools attended vacation school. Of this number, 647 enrolled at John Marshall.
